

Executive & Stakeholder Communication

Managed communication and professional relationships with external partners, program clients, and other stakeholders, serving as a communication bridge between managers and external parties. Handled inquiries, concerns, and complaints with a calm and solution-oriented approach, helping de-escalate challenging situations while maintaining professional relationships and clear communication.